Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy Seminars

Interested in PT or OT? Come to one or both seminars to learn more!

Physical Therapy:

About the Seminar:
Lois Boulgarides, PT, DPT who teaches orthopedics in the Physical Therapy curriculum at Sacramento State University, will speak about Physical Therapy as a profession. She will also address the Sacramento State University program specifically, in terms of what the admission criteria are, and how competitive it is to get in to the program.

Location - Everson Hall room 176
When - December 5 at 11 a.m.

Occupational Therapy:

About the Seminar:
Dr. Gigi Smith is an Assistant Professor in the Occupational Therapy Program at San Jose State University. She will talk about Occupational Therapy (OT) as a career and how to apply for OT graduate programs. Smith is the Graduate Admissions Coordinator for the Entry Level Master’s Program at San Jose State University and in addition to working at SJSU, she works in Early Intervention as an independent contractor with HOPE Early Start program.

Location - Surge III room 1309
When - November 12 at 5 p.m.